SAFEchild loans the Resilience DVD to community organizations interested in taking action to prevent Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs), to build resilience and to use trauma-informed approaches in Wake County.

Per the licensing agreement for our purchase of the film:

- 1) you may not charge admission for viewing,
- 2) your audience must be limited to fewer than 250 people.

Further, any organization borrowing the DVD bears the responsibility of

- 1) picking up the DVD from SAFEchild's office (864 West Morgan St., Raleigh) Monday-Thursday, during business hours (9 am-5 pm),
- 2) returning the DVD within 2 business days of the screening, and
- 3) completing this short online survey within one week of screening:

Any organization borrowing the DVD is responsible for any damage to the DVD. If the DVD is damaged and/or not returned within 2 business days a $400 fee for the cost of replacement will be charged. SAFEchild will send an invoice in this case. Use of the DVD is contingent upon submission of this form to Lisheema Barr, lbarr@safecildnc.org. Requests will be honored on a first-come, first-served basis.

By signing this form, I agree to honor all of the above criteria.
